

Grading Criteria: Reflection	Exceptional	Met	Not Met
Your Group	You have clearly explained what methods your group used to successfully work together and have included things you would do differently next time based on your experience.	You explain what methods your group used to successfully work together.	The methods used to work together are not included or are unclear.
Your Rubric Choices	You have clearly identified choices in your reflection that you made in your rubric that explain why you designed your criteria as you did.	You have mentioned rubric choices in your reflection related to design choices.	Rubric choices are not mentioned in the reflection.
Appealing to Your Audience	You have identified specific things that you have done in your CSA to help your audience understand the process better.	You have mentioned things that you have done in your CSA to help your audience.	Audience reception not mentioned in the reflection.
Your Examples and Arrangement	You clearly explain why you chose the examples you did, and clearly explain the specific order in which you discussed them.	You mention the examples you chose and the way you arranged them.	The arrangement of the examples is not mentioned in the reflection.